

Would you like to learn how to obtain the best possible income stream throughout retirement?

You are invited to a series of financial information talks to be held monthly over 3 months from June to August, addressing the following topics and many more:

How much money you really need to meet your retirement and aged care needs

How to use a mix of income-stream investments plus Centrelink/DVA pensions to receive the best possible long-term income, as well as protecting your capital and paying little or no tax

How to achieve optimal investment returns both inside and outside of superannuation with the right level of risk for you

Ways to safely transfer your assets to your loved ones after you've gone

Marcel DeLeon from Q&A Wealth (Montville) will present a series of information talks explaining how you can make the very most of the resources available to you in retirement. Marcel has been in the financial services industry for over 30 years and specialises in retirement planning.

Each talk will be held at two venues:
